The New College
Senior Doctoral Fellow Luncheon Speakers Series

Friday, February 10
12 - 2 p.m.

Eliza Chandler, Equity Studies Senior Doctoral Fellow
"Mapping Difference: Critical Connections between Diaspora and Crip Communities"

Wednesday, February 29
12 - 2 p.m.

Melissa Levin, African Studies Senior Doctoral Fellow
"Bureaucratizing the Past: The Blunted Weapon of Memorial Practice in Post-apartheid South Africa"

Friday, March 30
12 - 2 p.m.

Jared Toney, Caribbean Studies Senior Doctoral Fellow
"Diasporic Nationalisms: Afro-Caribbean Migration, Race, and the Nation/State in North America, 1910-1925"

Wednesday, April 4
12 - 2 p.m.

Jennifer Motha, Buddhism, Psychology and Mental Health Senior Doctoral Fellow
"Contemplating Teaching: Meditation and Reflection in the Pedagogical Process"

Room 2053, Wilson Hall, New College

A light lunch will be served.

For information about the series, contact June Larkin (june.larkin@utoronto.ca).