Memorial Resolution for Gabrielle (Gay) MacDonald

D. Knott presented the following resolution to Council:

Memorial Resolution
Dr. Gabrielle (Gay) MacDonald
New College Council
October 6, 2016

Be it resolved that New College deeply regrets the death on Monday, May 2, 2016 of Dr. Gabrielle (Gay) MacDonald.

Gabrielle A. MacDonald was born in England in 1944 and educated at the University of Toronto (B.A., M.Phil., PhD) and the University of Birmingham (M.A.). She specialized in Renaissance Literature, writing her PhD dissertation on Horsemanship as a courtly art in Elizabethan England: origins, theory and practice.

Gay was Senior Tutor and then Senior Lecturer at New College from 1983 to 2004. Throughout this period, she was Director of the Writing Centre at New College, making a difference in the lives of hundreds of students. She served as Chair of New College Council in the mid-1990s. In 2004 ill health forced her to take an extended leave. She retired in 2010.

Always an active supporter of community life at New College, Gay is remembered for her warmth, humor and generosity. She was deeply committed to students and was an eloquent advocate of writing instruction and Writing Centres at the University of Toronto. Most notably, she did exceptional work on the Provostial Steering Committee on Writing in 1992, which laid the groundwork for expanded writing programming across the University.

She is survived by her siblings Jennifer Joan Prior of Owen Sound, Chris Prior (Ilona) of Oakville and Katherine Elizabeth Faulkner (John) of Burlington, and by her nephews and nieces.

BE IT RESOLVED that the New College Council profoundly regrets the passing of Gabrielle MacDonald and this memorial resolution be entered into the New College Council minutes and that the Chair of New College Council communicates our deepest condolences to her family.

CARRIED Unanimously.

J. Newman asked that everyone rise, and a moment of silence was held.
Report from Standing Committees

There were no reports from Standing Committees.

Report from the Principal

Y. Roberge reported the following:

• Summer 2016
  This summer has been exceptionally busy. Faculty and staff were thanked for their work over the summer, in particular the Summer Residence staff, International Programs, caretaking, orientation planners, ORSL, NCSC and the Registrar’s Office.

• New UCDF Instructor
  Ellen Katz, a professor in the Faculty of Social Work, is joining the Buddhism, Psychology and Mental Health Program. She will be teaching a course in the Winter 2017 term.

• Senior Doctoral Fellows
  There are six Senior Doctoral Fellows at the College this year: Christopher Webb (African Studies); Anthony Briggs (Caribbean Studies); Bethan Fisk (Caribbean Studies); Mary Jean Hande (Equity Studies); Christopher Smith (Equity Studies); and Marlon Valencia (International Foundation Program). They will present their research as part of the New College Senior Doctoral Fellowship Speaker Series in the new year.

• New Staff Members
  Pam Pecoskie and Lauren Vollmer have been hired in the New College Registrar’s Office; and Tracy Thomas and Todd Le Blanc have been hired in the Office of Residence and Student Life. Two searches are ongoing – one for a new Vice Principal (D. Knott’s term ends June 30, 2017) and one for an interim Writing Centre Director (during D. Knott’s leave). The search committee for a new Vice Principal has met and is currently reviewing options.

• Academic Calendar
  The academic calendar is changing in 2017-2018. In response to overwhelming student demand, there will be a fall reading week. This will impact orientation, and, to some extent, the second term.

• New Vice President
  A new Vice President position for international relations and international students has been created – Vice President, International. The position has been filled by Professor Edward (Ted) Sargent. There will be communications coming from this office in the coming months regarding a strategic approach to everything “international” at U of T. Given the international nature of a number of our programs, there will certainly be an impact on us and the College will be paying attention.

• Emergency Preparedness at New College
  An ad hoc committee was struck to discuss emergency preparedness at the College. Some of the recommendations arising from this committee include stickers with important telephone numbers at everyone’s desk, and an icon on desktop computers that link directly to the comprehensive information available on the U of T emergency preparedness website.

• New Learning Management Engine
  Blackboard is being replaced. Three LMEs have been shortlisted (including one from
• Principal's Lunch
The next Principal’s Lunch is scheduled for October 14 in the Michael Dixon Senior Common Room.

• Convocation
New College’s November convocation is scheduled for November 8. The convocation speaker will be Bob Rae. Staff and faculty are encouraged to attend and support our students; a limited number of gowns are available from B. Registe (should you need one).

• New Principal
This is the last year of Y. Roberge’s term. The Provost has asked for volunteers/nominations for the search committee for a new principal. As such, we will adapt the College’s planning process. For example, with respect to the Wilson Hall expansion project, we will prepare the groundwork, but make no multi-million dollar decisions. Instead of developing a strategic plan document from the retreat, we will instead develop strategic directions for each theme. These reports will be completed this fall by various committees and will be reviewed at the January 2017 meeting of NCC.

Report from the Chief Administrative Officer

R. Vander Kraats reported the following:

• Finances
We are still very early in the financial year, but things are on track. H. Si and A. Sdao met their targets for summer programs.

• Infrastructure
Over the summer, the building at 45 Willcocks was painted, carpeted, had bathrooms renovated and energy-efficient lighting installed. The common rooms and elevators will be addressed next year. The Wilson Hall roof project continued this summer; year 9 of the project will be next year and will complete the project. Exterior walls were worked on this summer as well.

• NCIF Projects
A/V improvements have been made in WI 2008. A/V was installed in WI 2002 and will soon be installed in WI 2007D. Both of these rooms have/will have large 80” screens installed with dongles that connect to the TV wirelessly.

• New Meeting Room
WE 66 has been converted to an office to a small meeting room. It can be booked through N. Crawley.

• Electronic Locks
All locks in the residences are now electronic – no more metal keys. In the summer, this will allow us to limit residents to accessing only their floor. During the fall/winter session, residents will only be able to access their own building. As part of emergency safety, though, there will be cross-over floors established to allow building evacuation. This is required in 45 Willcocks, but will also be instituted in Wilson and Wetmore Halls.
• Washroom Project
The last of the public washrooms to be renovated will be done over the holiday break in December.

• Caretaking Lunch
A lunch was held to thank the caretaking staff for their work over the summer and the transition to fall/winter.

• Plaza Project
Applications for municipal approval have been made, and it is expected that it will take 6 months for a decision to be made. We hope to start construction in May 2017. Urban forestry has approved the plan; now waiting for city approval. As the University received money for a number of projects, contractors will be very busy next summer. This means the costs will be higher than planned.

• Wilson Hall Expansion
This project is now on the University’s secondary plan and will go through the municipal approval process. A sub-committee of the Building Committee will develop the Terms of Reference document.

• 45 Willcocks
The finances at 45 Willcocks have finally been sorted out, with the end result being that the William Doo Auditorium remains under the control of New College. We should discuss how we want to use the space, as well as the atrium and other under-utilized spaces. Construction/renovations on the Doo should begin summer 2018.

• Space Shortage
The IFP has grown exponentially, and we need to find a way to expand their space. There is some under-utilized space in the basement of Wetmore Hall. There is also the possibility or turning part of the 2nd floor of 45 Willcocks into office space. We also need to consider renovations and space use of the Wilson Lounge and the administrative corridors.

• Food Services
Food services on campus are no longer provided by Aramark. There has been a noticeable food quality improvement.

Report of the Registrar

K. Huffman reported the following:

• Grants
The method by which students apply for grants is changing. It's moving to an online application on ACORN and then the applications are forwarded to the student's College Registrar. Registrar’s Offices will still meet with students in person regarding scholarships and financial literacy. In ACORN, all grants that a given student is receiving will be displayed, as well as previous awards.

• Business Process Review – Admissions Process
K. Huffman has been part of a campus-wide group reviewing and revamping the admissions process, as the current process is confusing and labour-intensive. It took the 12-15 person committee 2.5 days to figure the process out. The project is coming to a conclusion and the results will be available this fall.
• New College Enrolment Data (attached)
  The College’s enrolment this year is comparable in size to St. Michael’s College and Woodsworth College. The Year 1 data includes new admits and those who didn’t progress to Year 2. International students account for 40% of the New College student body, which translates to 30% of the Faculty of Arts and Science’s international enrolment. Overall, international students account for 25% of the FAS enrolment. We are aiming for a steady-state enrolment in IFP. Faculty-wide new admits are slightly below targets. November 1 is the official enrolment count date.

F. Taverna commented that more students are graduating after 5 years than 4 years (42% vs 37%).

Report from the Director, Office of Residence and Student Life

L. McCormack-Smith reported the following

- Staffing
  Dirk Rodricks has been hired as the Residence Life Program Coordinator, reporting to M. Skinner. Todd Le Blanc has been hired as the Student Life Programs Coordinator, reporting to J. Charnaw-Burger. Tracy Thomas has been hired as the ORSL Administrative Assistant, working with N. Butler.

- Room Bookings
  Student group room bookings are being transitioned from N. Crawley’s office to ORSL.

- Academic Orientation
  There was better-than-expected participation in this year’s academic orientation. 80 students participated and the feedback received was very good.

- Orientation
  (Traditional) orientation went very well, with approximately 675 students participating. A survey has gone out to all students who participated. All Colleges included a set of common questions on the survey.

- Move-In
  September move-in went well. All 3 buildings are almost completely full.

- September Programming
  September was very busy with 3 weeks of programming, including New to You; You at New; and You Beyond New. The total attendance was 25-35 students, which is down from last year (60). It is thought this is due to timing, so that is being reconsidered for next year.

- Leadership Certificate Program & Leadership Certificate Program II
  We are hoping to increasing the LCP II participation this year, as there is now a bigger pool of students who have completed the LCP.

- Peer Mentorship
  eMentorship is done (the last email went out a week ago), so the program will now be reviewed and assessed. Two additional peer mentorship programs have started: Big Brothers Big Sisters and a program run out of the ORSL office (ratio of 2 mentees to each mentor).

- World Food Days
  “Home is Where the Spoon Is” - this free lunch will be on October 14th from 12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. All are welcome. This lunch is part of the World Food Assembly Conference, which offers free admission to all New College sessions for staff and students.

- Arts & Science Calendar (attached)
  In the proposed 2017-2018 calendar, the first day of classes will be the Thursday following Labour Day. November 6 – 10 will be the fall reading week. This means September residence move-in will be September 2\textsuperscript{nd}, with orientation beginning Sunday, September 3. Costing for orientation activities will be more expensive due to Labour Day. In January, classes will begin January 3. Residence move-in will be on a Tuesday (January 2) rather than the weekend, which is inconvenient for many students and their families. If we were to offer weekend move-in, the costs of flights and staffing in the residence would be significantly higher due to the holidays. Please note that this calendar is not yet finalized.

- Chestnut Residence
  11 New College residents requested the Chestnut Residence; all other New College residents are being housed at New College. There are 40 KPE students, 20 architecture students, and 40 APSE (engineering) students in residence at New College as well. Generally speaking, engineering students prefer to be clustered together, as this facilitates their group work. The Chestnut Residence population is nearly all APSE students.

Report from Student Councils

- NCSC
  N. Grant reported the following:
  - General Information
    - NCSC’s budget and finances are in order.
    - Orientation was very successful. The Council considers it to be the most successful orientation in terms of participation in living memory.
    - The fall by-elections are complete; nearly all positions have been filled.
    - A retreat and Council meeting was held on October 2. ORSL assisted with the coordination.
    - There is a new commission program this year. All commissions will be given money to host meetings and events specific to their area(s) of interest.
    - The grants program has been launched. Information is available on the NCSC Facebook page.
    - In about two weeks, the NCSC website should be ready to launch.
    - The social calendar has been set for the year. Some of the events include a pizza party (happening today at 45 Willcocks); weekly/bi-weekly commuter events; a grilled cheese event; Halloween Haunt at Canada’s Wonderland (October 21); Halloween Club Night (October 27); and in November there will be a Karaoke/Bubble Tea night; a paint lounge event; distributing care packages for the homeless, athletic events (SkyZone, laser tag, bubble soccer); and a masquerade winter ball at the Royal York Hotel (December 2). A charity semi-formal is planned for January 18 (1/2 of proceeds to charity); Raptors game (February 24); and grad formal planning is underway.

Campus-Wide Initiatives
- NCSC voted in favour of endorsing the defederation referendum from the Canadian Federation of Students, as did St. Michael’s College, Trinity College, Victoria College and Engineering.
N. Grant was invited by the Provost to speak on the policy of open and accessible democratic autonomous student organizations. This new policy will create the University Complaint and Resolution Council for Student Societies. All St. George campus divisions were in favour.

N. Grant is on the Provostial Advisory Group and they are currently working through the sexual violence policy.

N. Grant meets regularly with the Vice Provost, Students.

Establishment of the St. George Student Alliance

The St. George Round Table (group of divisional heads on St. George campus), which made moves last year to create a St. George Student Union, has decided that the name St. George Student Alliance is more democratic and politically powerful. Each of the first-entry units will appoint (internally) members. There will also be campus-wide elections for commissions. The resolutions and bylaws have been endorsed by New College, Trinity College, Victoria College, St. Michael’s College, Engineering and Music. University College is currently debating them, and there has not yet been a response from Innis College or Woodsworth College. There is broad support among students. An annual general meeting will be held in November, with a referendum to establish a levy in March 2017, which will then be brought forward to the University Affairs Board at their May 2017 meeting. Colleges have been rallying against UTSU for over 10 years and this is the result of that work.

Future Meetings

K. Huffman explained that we are trying to find a set day and time for Council meetings. There was discussion about Fridays from 1:00 – 3:00 pm, and the rest of the fall meeting dates will be November 11 and December 9 from 1:00 – 3:00 pm. In the winter, Friday mornings from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm are being considered.

Other Business

A. Liddell reported the following:

- As part of the Boundless campaign, New College has raised $7,318,704. This campaign was supposed to end in December, but it has been very successful and is going to be extended. There will be a public announcement regarding the campaign made on November 10. The College is in a good position, having received a gift of $1 million from William Doo for upgrades to the auditorium, and another $1 million for scholarships.

- The Annual Fund – this year, the focus is on a mature student. The student is from Africa and is the first in his family to attend university. He’s receiving an annual bursary to attend.

- The new re:New Magazine is out. The office is following a new publication schedule. A new designer was hired for this issue, and the image on the cover was donated by an alumnus. Ryan Pyle also donated an image. The magazine is in the mail now. S. Hansen was thanked for her hard work on the magazine.

- Our two student bloggers are in place. There is one first-year and one fourth-year blogger this year. The first-year blogger is the daughter of a New College alum.

- We plan to continue the Alumni Speaker Series.
• At the next Dinner@ New, the parliamentary secretary and New College alumna (Celina Caesar-Chavannes) is coming. At the November 2\textsuperscript{nd} Dinner@New, Ryan Pyle will be the guest.
