

Homes First Society

Overview:

This role will support the Client Services department by coordinating data collection efforts, analyzing data for reports and funding proposals, and conducting program evaluations to improve effectiveness.

The opportunity:

This placement's goal will be to support evidence-based decision making and program effectiveness through data collection, analysis, and research related to housing and homelessness-related issues and policies.

The placement:

Mission Statement: Homes First Society develops and provides affordable, stable housing and support services to break the cycle of homelessness for people with the fewest housing options.

<https://homesfirst.on.ca/>

The position:

This role will collaborate with managers on database design and research tools and disseminate knowledge across different departments and staff to facilitate program analysis. Overall, the goal will be to support evidence-based decision making and program effectiveness through data collection, analysis, and research related to housing and homelessness-related issues and policies.

The ideal candidate:

A student that has strong analytical and organizational skills to aggregate and validate data and develop insights, strong verbal and written communication skills, has outstanding computer skills (MS Office applications) to build impactful presentations, reports, policies & procedures and has the ability to be detail-oriented in a fast-paced setting.

How to apply:

For more information about the course and application process go to:

<https://www.newcollege.utoronto.ca/cel-courses/cel-how-to-apply/>

CEL Coordinator, Kevin Edmonds: nc.engagedlearning@utoronto.ca
Fall/Winter 2024-25