CCNCTO is a non-profit organization that serves working class Chinese Canadian immigrants in the Greater Toronto Area (GTA). Our focus is on the Chinese working class and (im)migrants in Scarborough, however we also organize precarious and marginalized Chinese across the Greater Toronto Area to advance racial, social, economic, and immigration justice.

Our mission is to promote equity, social justice, inclusive civic participation, and respect for diversity. Our current priorities are outreaching to the marginalized Chinese Canadian community, building up community capacity, creating intergenerational spaces, and continuing our advocacy work on anti-racism.

Qualifications

- Experience in non-profit work.
- Strong understanding of anti-racism and social justice.
- Experience in community outreach, base-building, member leadership development, organizing campaigns and project management in non-profit/community organizations.
- Experience in designing, leading, running workshops, and training for the community.
- Research, grant writing, fundraising (optional depending on skill sets).

Assets

- Bilingual language skills in Mandarin.
- Ability to read or write in Simplified Chinese.
- Access to a reliable vehicle (for outreach purposes).

Responsibilities

- Conducting both in-person and digital outreach to targeted groups in Scarborough, York Region, Downtown Toronto, and Mississauga (some in-person work is mandatory).
- Building one-on-one deep engagement relationships with diverse Chinese (im)migrant members about social justice issues and leadership skills.
- Supporting current CCNCTO's senior, worker, and youth programs and community research/advocacy projects.
- Help coordinate and facilitate community meetings, workshops, and events.
- Create community informational and educational resources.
