

International Programs at New College seeks instructors to teach in the International English Program from July 7th to July 25th, 2025.

Culture & Community Course (Youth)

Course description

Being a modern citizen involves valuing the differences and recognizing the similarities between diverse groups of people. Our Culture & Community course for youth is designed to give young people engaging opportunities to improve their core language proficiency while exploring approaches to intercultural communication and developing projects that involve a community-centred approach to learning. Students will explore cultural content locally from Toronto, regionally from Canada, and globally from student cultures and beyond to better understand how context impacts communication. This course requires students to be active learners and work collaboratively on a project that can positively impact a local campus-based community area through classroom instruction that focuses on exploring communication strategies, raising cultural awareness, and identifying potential challenges.

Delivery mode	In-person
Enrolment estimate	15 students per section
Class Schedule:	Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m..
Stipend	$1984.39 (New Instructor) - $2088.83 (Returning Instructor) - $2297.72 (IFP Sessional Instructor)
