

International Programs at New College seeks 1 instructor to teach a course in the Pre-University Program from July 28th to August 15th, 2025.

Global Citizenship Course

Course description

The Global Citizenship Program is a course in critical thinking and teamwork for international high school students aged 15-17, most of whom use English as an additional language. Working within a Global Citizenship Educational framework, participants use design thinking to explore and generate solutions to a complex problem affecting our global community. This summer the course theme is food.

Delivery mode	In-person
Enrolment estimate	20 students per section
Class Schedule:	Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Stipend	$3611.66

Minimum Qualifications

Applicants must have a B.Ed. (or equivalent teaching degree) and TESL training (e.g. Additional Qualifications(s) in ESL and/or TESL Canada Level 2 certification) OR a graduate degree in applied linguistics or a related discipline.

Preferred Qualifications

Documented experience working with high school students. Teaching experience and/or training in one or more of the following: Global Citizenship Education (GCE); English for Academic Purposes (EAP); experience and/or training in subject areas related to the course theme (e.g. food). Experience teaching a global citizenship course to youth students in the Advanced Academic Program is preferred.

Responsibilities

- Preparation and teaching of course (e.g. adapting and delivering pre-existing materials, facilitating and grading student work, etc.) aligned with the program curriculum framework
- Maintaining records of attendance and submitting a written evaluation for each student
- Liaising with program staff and the Assistant / Academic Director as required

It is understood that some announcements of vacancies are tentative, pending final budgetary determinations.

Application Process

Applicants should submit a detailed letter of application (cover letter); an updated curriculum vitae; name and contact information (email and phone); evidence of teaching in the relevant area. If you are applying for multiple courses offered at the same time, please indicate your course preference by completing the ranking form. Where the positions have not been ranked, we will deem them to be ranked equally.
