

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
NEW COLLEGE

THE JUNE LARKIN AWARD FOR PEDAGOGICAL DEVELOPMENT

APPLICATION FORM

Please submit your proposal to the New College Principal (nc.principal@utoronto.ca) and to your Program Director no later than March 31, 2022 for a half-course release in the 2022-23 academic session.

To ensure equal consideration for all applicants, proposals should not exceed 4 pages (including Parts I cover page). Please use a standard 12-point font.

By signing the form below, the Program/Unit Director acknowledges support for this application and the half-course release.

This form is available online at: <http://www.newcollege.utoronto.ca/about-us/governance/>

PART I (Cover Page) – Applicant & Project Information

Applicant

Last Name	First Name
Sponsoring Program/Unit	UTOR Email Address
Applicant's Signature

Project Title

--

Program/Unit Director

Last Name	First Name
Program/Unit Director's Signature

Approved by

Principal's Signature	Date
-----------------------	------

PART II – Details of Proposed Project

- 1) Briefly describe the proposed project or activity.
- 2) Provide a rationale for the work and how it will contribute to your professional development and the professional development of other College instructors. Indicate how the project outcomes might be sustained.
- 3) Briefly situate the project in relation to relevant scholarly literature and teaching/learning practice.
- 4) Outline the implementation strategy and plan for sharing the project outcomes with the wider New College community.
- 5) Provide a time frame for the project.

PART III – Budget Information

Please provide a detailed description of the budget, including additional sources of funding if needed (e.g. research assistance, conference travel, professional development course fees, etc.)