

The New College

Senior Doctoral Fellow

Speakers Series 2022/23

Wednesday,

April 12

1:30 - 3pm

(Hosted by Aggrey Wasike and Conrad James)

BINTA BAJAHA, African Studies

Sahelian Realities of Climate Change: Interrogating Intersectional Vulnerabilities, Resilience and Agency in a 'SeneGambian' Anthropocene

RYAN PERSADIE, Caribbean Studies

Sounding Qoolie Diasporas: Queer Indo-Caribbean Performance, Soca Feminisms, and the Politics of Fête in Toronto and New York City

Wednesday,

April 19

1:30 - 3pm

(Hosted by Tara Goldstein)

HAZAL HALAVUT, Critical Studies in Equity & Solidarity

Archives of Absence: Tracing Collective Loss after Colonial Erasure

HANNAH QUINN, Critical Studies in Equity & Solidarity

"Cultures of coercion and cultures of consent: intimacy, sexuality, and presumptions of (in)capacity in the lives of intellectually disabled adults" A presentation based on 13 months of ethnographic research at a disability services day centre in Montreal, Quebec

Wednesday,

April 26

1:30 - 3pm

(Hosted by Colleen Dockstader and Frances Garrett)

YIQING LU, Human Biology

Genome-wide CRISPR screens identify novel regulators of wild-type and mutant p53 stability.

AMBER MOORE, Buddhism, Psychology & Mental Health

Between Literary Worlds: Translation as commentary in the study of Newar Buddhist narratives

Click the link to register and get your Zoom link, or scan the QR code:

<https://uoft.me/NewCollegeSeniorDoctoralFellowsSpeakerSeries202223>

For information about the series, contact Tara Goldstein (tara.goldstein@utoronto.ca)

