

Celebrating 50 Years of Women & Gender Studies at the University of Toronto

Join the Women & Gender Studies Institute for a series of events to honour our 50th Anniversary. The University of Toronto holds the distinction of having one of the oldest programs in Women and Gender Studies in Canada, beginning in the 1970s.

50 Years of Women and Gender Studies at UofT: A Panel Discussion

Wednesday, January 31, 2024 | 4:00pm - 6:00pm | William Doo Auditorium

RSVP uoft.me/wgsi50-uoft

50 Years of Feminisms in the City

Wednesday, February 28, 2024 | 4:00pm - 6:00pm | William Doo Auditorium

RSVP uoft.me/wgsi50-toronto

50 Years of WGSi Alumni: An International Women's Day Panel

Wed, March 6, 2024 | 6:00pm - 8:00pm | William Doo Auditorium

RSVP uoft.me/wgsi50-iwd

Transnational Reflections on 50 Years of Development Alternatives with Women for a New Era (DAWN)

April 11, 2024 | 6:00pm - 8:00pm | William Doo Auditorium

RSVP uoft.me/wgsi50-intl

Unfinished Revolutions

April 12, 2024 - April 14, 2024 | Various Times | William Doo Auditorium

Fri, April 12, 2024 3:00pm - 8:00pm

Sat, April 13, 2024 11:00am - 7:00pm

Sun, April 14, 2024* 2:00pm - 7:00pm *Sessions on April 14 will be conducted only in Persian and Kurdish

RSVP uoft.me/wgsi50-ur

This list is subject to change as more events are added to the 50th Anniversary schedule. Please visit www.uoft.me/wgsi50 for more information, and please contact wgsi.comms@utoronto.ca if you have any questions.

We would like to thank our co-sponsors: the Dean's Office, Faculty of Arts and Science; New College; Bissell-Heyd Chair in American Studies.